Little Red Riding Hood

Little Red Riding Hood is going to walk through the wood to her Grandma's cottage.

On her way, she meets a bad wolf, who craftily discovers
where she is going.

The wolf runs very quickly and arrives at the cottage before Little Red Riding Hood, where he frightens Grandma so much that she hides in the wardrobe.

Little Red Riding Hood
arrives at the cottage, not knowing that
the wolf is inside.

The wolf is lying in Grandma's bed, wearing Grandma's night cap.

When Little Red Riding Hood realises that it is not Grandma, she screams very loudly
and runs out of the cottage.
Luckily, a woodcutter nearby,
hears her and frightens
the wolf so much that he is never seen again.

PRINTED IN ITALY FOR THE PUBLISHERS
PETER HADDOCK Ltd., BRIDLINGTON, U.K.
© CARLOS BUSQUETS

ISBN 0-7105-042

KO-904-345

9 780710 504227